

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES,
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

UNITED STATES

vs.

LOUIS WESOKY and
JACOB WESOKY.

NO. 21 MAY TERM, 1909.

NO. 23 MAY TERM, 1909.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That We, JACOB WESOKY, of the City of Pittsburgh, County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, as principal, and James H. Thompson, of the City of Pittsburgh, County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, as surety, are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America, in the sum of $5000<sup>00</sup> Thousand Dollars, lawful money, to be paid to the said United States of America, its certain attorney or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

James SEALED with our seals and dated the 14th day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

WHEREAS, The above named James H. Thompson at the special instance and request of the above bounden, JACOB WESOKY, standeth bound for said JACOB WESOKY to the United States of America, in the sum of $5000<sup>00</sup> Thousand Dollars, conditioned for the appearance of the said JACOB WESOKY at the next term of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, to be held at the City of Philadelphia, in and for the County of Philadelphia, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to answer the judgment of the Court and such matters and things as shall then and there be found against him on the part of the United States, and abide by the judgment of said Court.

NOW THE CONDITION OF THE ABOVE OBLIGATION IS SUCH,
That if the said JACOB WESOKY shall prosecute his appeal with effect and answer all damages and costs if he fail to make his plea good, and so abide the further orders of the Court touching the same, then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Jacob Wesoky (SEAL)

James N. Thompson (SEAL)

WITNESS:

R. M. Egan

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, ) COUNTY OF ALLEGHENY. ) SS:

Personally appeared before me, James N. Thompson, who being duly sworn, says that he is worth the amount of the foregoing bond over and above all his just debts and liabilities.

SWORN to and subscribed before me

this 14th day of June 1909.

W. J. Mearns

James N. Thompson

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER,
WESTERN DISTRICT OF PA.,
Commission Expires July 1, 1912
HARRISBURG, PA.

O R D E R.

AND NOW, to wit: June 14th 1909, the foregoing bond is presented in open Court, and on motion of Counsel the same is approved and ordered filed. It is further ordered that said bond shall operate as a supersedeas in said case.

12, TV
C. W. C. W.

NO. 21
NO. 23

MAY TERM, 1909.
MAY TERM, 1909.

UNITED STATES

VS.

LOUIS WESOKY and JACOB WESOKY.

B O N D.

mf

S

John M. Haverty,
Attorney at Law,
611 Frick Building,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Filed June 14 1909.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES,
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

UNITED STATES

vs.

LOUIS WESOKY and
JACOB WESOKY.

}
{
{
{
{

NO. 21      MAY TERM, 1909.

NO. 23      MAY TERM, 1909.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That We, LOUIS WESOKY, of the City of Pittsburgh, County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, as principal and Julius Wesoky, of the City of Pittsburgh, County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, as surety, are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America, in the sum of $5,000<sup>00</sup> Thousand Dollars, lawful money, to be paid to the said United States of America, its certain attorney or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Given SEALED with our seals and dated the 14th day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

WHEREAS, The above named Julius Wesoky at the special instance and request of the above bounden, LOUIS WESOKY, standeth bound for said LOUIS WESOKY to the United States of America in the sum of $5,000<sup>00</sup> Thousand Dollars, conditioned for the appearance of the said LOUIS WESOKY at the next term of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, to be held at the City of Philadelphia, in and for the County of Philadelphia, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to answer the judgment of the Court and such matters and things as shall then and there be found against him on the part of the United States, and abide by the judgment of said Court.

O R D E R.

AND NOW, to wit:

June 14th

1909, the ~~foregoing bond is presented in open Court, and on motion of Counsel the same is approved and ordered filed. It is further ordered that said bond shall operate as a supersedeas in said case.~~

NO. 21 MAY TERM, 1909.
NO. 23 MAY TERM, 1909.

UNITED STATES

vs.

LOUIS WESOKY and JACOB WESOKY

B O N D.

my

John M. Haverty,
Attorney at Law,
611 Frick Building,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Filed June 14 1909.

In the District Court of the United States,
For the Western District of Pennsylvania.

The United States,

vs.

Jacob Wesoky and
Louis Wesoky.

No. 22 May Term, 1909.

And, now, to wit, Oct 17 1910, the Court is moved for leave to enter a Nolle Prosequi in the above-entitled case for the reason that the same has been authorized by a letter from the Honorable, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, dated June 29, 1910, a copy of which is hereto attached.

U. S. Attorney, West. Dist. of Pa.

And, now, to wit, Oct 17 1910, the foregoing motion presented in open Court, and upon consideration thereof it is hereby ordered that a Nolle Prosequi be entered in the above-entitled case.

JBTT
I. P.

Copy

1385.38

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON

TM

OFFICE OF
COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE
IN REPLYING QUOTE INITIALS

RMH

June 29, 1910.

J. H. Jordan, Esq.,

U. S. Attorney,

Pittsburg, Pa.

Sir:

Your letter of the 29th instant, reporting the disposition of the several cases against R. H. Pattison and N. O. Patterson, William H. Shipley et al., and Jacob & Louis Wesoky, has been received.

You state that all of these cases have been finally disposed of except No. 22 May Term, 1909, United States v. Jacob & Louis Wesoky, and you recommend that, as these parties are now undergoing sentences of imprisonment, you be authorized to enter a nolle pros as to this pending case.

In reply you are authorized to enter a nolle as requested, referring to this letter in your term report as authority.

Respectfully,

R. E. Cabell

Commissioner.

No. 22 May Term, 1909
In the District Court of the United States, for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

The United States

vs.

Jacob Wesoky and Louis
Wesoky.

Motion and Order for Nolle Prosequi.

me D

Filed Oct. 17, 1910

John H. Jordan,
U. S. Attorney

RECORDED

1910

1st Court

In the District Court of the United States,
For the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Of May Sessions, A. D. 1909

Western District of Pennsylvania, ss.

The GRAND INQUEST of the United States of America, now inquiring in and for the Western District of Pennsylvania, upon their oaths and solemn affirmations, respectively, DO PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to one John Michael certain oleomargarine, to wit, sixty pounds pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said John Michael said oleomargarine which was packed in <sup>two</sup> certain wooden tubs, or packages, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

2<sup>d</sup> Count Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Joseph Strack certain oleomargarine, to wit, thirty pounds, which was not packed in a wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Joseph Strack said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

3<sup>d</sup> Feb Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the Twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Stephen Butcher certain oleomargarine, to wit, sixty pounds, which <sup>new</sup> was not packed in a wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Stephen Butcher said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

4th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the fourth - seventh day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twice, at the County of ALLEGHENY, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Morris Kamin certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty Pounds pounds, which was not packed in a wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Morris Kamin said oleomargarine which was packed in <sup>thirty pounds in a wooden</sup> certain wooden tub, <sup>ex</sup> package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

~~THE~~ 5th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the Twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Joseph Kellner certain oleomargarine, to wit, ninety pounds, which <sup>new</sup> was not packed in a wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Joseph Kellner <sup>those</sup> said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub; or package; which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

37th 6th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESCKY and LOUIS WESCKY, late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the fourth - ffth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one A. Borakowsky certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, which was not packed in a wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said A. Borakowsky said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

~~to~~ the 7th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and ~~two~~ <sup>eight</sup>, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court,, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Michael Gurgach certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Michael Gurgach said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

~~THE~~ 8TH Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court,, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Michael Gungach certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Michael Gungach said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

8th 9th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court,, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to one George Delock certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said George Delock said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United states.

9th 10th Count.

And the GRAND JURIST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and Eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court,, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to one B. L. Dimickovitz certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said B. L. Dimickovitz said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

11th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the  ninth  day of  December , in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and  eight , at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one  Mrs. E. Albert  certain oleomargarine, to wit,  fifteen  pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said  Miss E. Albert  said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

CONFIDENTIAL
12th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the Twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ninth, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one H. Lebowitz certain oleomargarine, to wit, ten pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said H. Lebowitz certain oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

13th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore to wit, on the Twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and Eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale and deliver and offer to deliver, to one Stephen Nowaczyjki certain oleomargarine, to wit, thirty pounds, which was not packed in a new wooden or paper package, or new wooden or paper packages, as required by law, to wit, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale, and deliver and offer to deliver, to said Stephen Nowaczyjki said oleomargarine which was packed in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had been theretofore used to contain oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

122 10th 14th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Tuesday - first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, sixty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

~~THE~~ 15th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper Firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

~~Page~~ 16th
Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, Eighty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

Page 17th count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the fourth - orville day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, fourteen silly pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

7th 18th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, twenty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in <sup>three</sup> certain wooden tubs, or packages, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in ~~a~~ new wooden or paper firkin; tubs or packages, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

Firkin 19th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Fourth - Fifth day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twins, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

10th 20th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package <sup>as</sup> required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

FIR 2/2nd Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the month day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

18th 22<sup>d</sup> Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, sixty <sup>two</sup> pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in ~~a~~ certain wooden tub; or package; which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in ~~a~~ new wooden or paper firkin; tubs or packages as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

1974 23d Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit, four hundred <sup>seven</sup> forty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

24th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ninety, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit: fifteen pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

25th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY
late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit:

Ten pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

26th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly pack certain oleomargarine, to wit:

Thirty pounds of oleomargarine artificially colored to look like butter of a shade of yellow, in a certain wooden tub, or package, which had theretofore been used to contain oleomargarine, and not in a new wooden or paper firkin, tub or package, as required by law; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

Feb 27th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WMSOKY and LOUIS WMSOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one John Michael, certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, two firkins, tubs or packages, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub <sup>and package</sup> contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

Book 28th Count.

77

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Joseph Krass certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, one firkin, tub or package, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, ~~each~~ of which said firkins, tub or package, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, ~~had~~ affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Five Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

And 29th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Stephen Butcher certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, Two firkins, tubs or packages, ~~each~~ <sup>out</sup> containing sixty pounds, The other thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Six Dollars and Three Dollars <sup>respectively</sup> ~~Dollars~~, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tubs contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

Page 30th
Court.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Morris Kuman, a certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, one firkin, tub or package, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, ~~each~~ of which said firkin, tub or package, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, ~~each~~ of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

22831st Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Joseph Kellner certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, three firkins, tubs or packages, each containing thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, ~~have~~ as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of three Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

77th 32<sup>d</sup> Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one A. Booth-Caverty a certain wooden firkin<sup>s</sup>, tub<sup>s</sup> or package<sup>s</sup>, of oleomargarine, to wit, one firkin<sup>s</sup>, tub<sup>s</sup> or package<sup>s</sup>, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, ~~each~~ of which said firkin<sup>s</sup>, tub<sup>s</sup> or package<sup>s</sup>, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, ~~have~~ as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

Reil 33d Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Michael Grogan, a certain wooden firkin~~s~~, tub~~s~~ or package~~s~~, of oleomargarine, to wit, one firkin~~s~~, tub~~s~~ or package~~s~~, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, ~~each~~ of which said firkin~~s~~, tub~~s~~ or package~~s~~, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, ~~each~~ of said tub~~s~~ did not, ~~have~~ as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three Dollars Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

27th 34th
Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Precision Supply Co. certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, Two firkins, tubs or packages, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, ~~have~~ as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three Dollars dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

§ 81h 35th
Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the fifteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Max Reck a certain wooden firkin, tub or package, of oleomargarine, to wit, one firkin, tub or package, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkin, tub or package, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, ~~have~~ as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

Sept 36th
Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the Twenty-ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ninety, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one East Out Cowie certain wooden firkins, tubs or packages, of oleomargarine, to wit, one firkin, tub or packages, each containing Thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, ~~each~~ of which said firkins, tubs or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Five Dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

U. S. Attorney, West. Dist. of Penn'a.

37th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit: on the Ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ~~one~~<sup>eight</sup>, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Miss E.

About certain wooden firkins, tubs, or packages of oleomargarine, to wit: One firkin, tub, or package, ~~each~~ containing fifteen pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs, or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of One  $\frac{50}{100}$  dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

38th Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit: on the twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ~~nine~~ <sup>eight</sup>, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one H. Lebonitz certain wooden firkins, tubs, or packages of oleomargarine, to wit: One firkin<sup>s</sup>, tub<sup>s</sup>, or packages, each containing ten pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs, or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that ~~is~~ to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of One dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub ~~amntained~~, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

39 cts Count.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, THAT

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit: on the twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ~~nine~~<sup>eight</sup>, at the County of Allegheny, in said Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully did knowingly sell and offer for sale to one Stephen Nowajyski certain wooden firkins, tubs, or packages of oleomargarine, to wit: One firkin~~s~~, tub~~s~~, or packages, each containing thirty pounds of oleomargarine to which had been added, and with which had been mixed, certain artificial coloration that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, each of which said firkins, tubs, or packages, was not then and there stamped, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has prescribed in the premises, that is to say, each of said tubs did not, as was prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, have affixed and attached thereto a certain internal-revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of Three dollars, the internal revenue tax due the United States on the oleomargarine in said tub contained, being a tax of ten cents per pound on said oleomargarine; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

John H. Jordan
U.S. Attorney, W. D. Pa.

BACK OR COVER OF INDICTMENT

WITH

PLEA AND JUDGMENT.

Witnesses:

John Michael
 Jos. Skrak
 Stephen Butelko
 Morris Nieman
 Jos. Kellner
 S. Bartkowsky
 Michael Gregach
 Geo. Delost
 B. L. Simkowitz
 Mat Recht
 Jacob Berkowitz
 H. S. Fover
 J. W. O'Connor
 C. L. Sprung
 C. L. Criss
 L. M. Shalva
 C. T. Freeman
 Louis Kunkel
 S. P. Smith
 J. Fullerton
 B. Young

E. S. Nutt
 E. A. Dingwall
 Mrs. M. A. Becht
 Mrs. Jos. Skrak
 Mary Polynog
 Richard Miller
 R. T. Lacombe
 J. B. Coy
 Geo Gregach
 Miss E. Albert
 H. Lebowitz
 S. Nowakowski
 John Simkowitz
 Mrs. L. Marshall
 A. Reichbaum

Abon witnesses sworn by me this 4
 day of May 1909

No. May Term, 1909
Rule Docket
 No. 22

United States District Court,

Western District of Pennsylvania.

THE UNITED STATES

vs.

Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky

INDICTMENT FOR
1-19 inches; selling oleum gas packed in packages then put into boxes for 20 & 29 inches; selling oleum gas packed in boxes not stamped as required by law

A TRUE BILL.

Alfred W. ...
 Foreman Grand Jury.

Filed May 11 1909
W. H. Jordan
 Clerk.

John H. Jordan,
 U. S. Attorney.

The defendant _____ waives arraignment and pleads _____ in open Court, this _____ day of _____, 190

VERDICT.

We, the jury, find the defendant _____ this _____ day of _____, 190

SENTENCE.

Foreman.

Whereupon, it is considered, ordered, and adjudged by the Court, that the said defendant _____ be imprisoned in the common jail of _____ County, for the term of _____ months, that he pay a fine of _____ dollars and costs of prosecution, and that he remain imprisoned in said jail until said fine and costs are paid, or until he is otherwise discharged by law.
 In open Court, this the _____ day of _____, 190

Dec. 17, Recy. Aug. 2, 1886
1 Dep. 507.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES,
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Of May Sessions, A. D. 1909.
Western District of Pennsylvania, ss.

The GRAND INQUEST of the United States of America,
now inquiring in and for the Western District of Pennsylvania, upon their oaths and solemn affirmations, respectively, DO PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the <sup>25th</sup>~~24th~~ day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twins at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, thirty pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis

Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, thirty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one Joseph Kellmer, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactories (said manufactories then being upon the premises at No. 12 Carpenter Alley, in rear of premises at No. 12 <sup>see premises on</sup> Trumbull St., at No. 12 Trumbull St., Pittsburgh, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United States; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

2nd COUNT.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the 2/5/54 day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and seven, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, eight pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, eighty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one Stephen Buechler, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactorys (said manufactorys then <sup>upon the premises at No. 12 Poplar Alley, in city of Pittsburg, at No. 12, Thunders St.,</sup> ~~being~~ <sup>each premises</sup> upon the premises at No. 1231 Poplar Alley, Pittsburg, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United states; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

3rd COUNT.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the 27th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and twain, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, Twenty pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one Morris ~~Thompson~~, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactories (said manufactories <sup>being upon premises at No. 12 Carpenter Alley, in near No. 24 Townsend St.,</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>each premises in</sup> ~~then being~~ upon the premises at No. 1231 Poplar Alley, Pittsburgh, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United States; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

4th COUNT.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the 25th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and <sup>eight</sup> ~~seven~~, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, thirty pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, Twenty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one Michael Grogan, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactories (said manufactories then being at No. 12 Carpenter Alley, in rear of No. 12 Townsend St., and being upon the premises at No. 1231 Poplar Alley, <sup>each place in</sup> Pittsburgh, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United states; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

576 COUNT.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the 2<sup>d</sup> day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and twelve, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one George DeLoak, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactorys (said manufactorys being at No. 12 Carpenter Alley, in rear of Premises at No. 12 Townsend St., at No. 12 Townsend St., and each place in town being upon the premises at No. 1231 Poplar Alley,) Pittsburgh, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United States; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

676 COUNT.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the 9th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twice, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States

of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one B. L. Linn County, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactory (said manufactory then being at No. 12 Coppleton Alley, in near of premises at No. 12 Thompson St., at No. 12 Thompson Street <sup>each in</sup> being upon the premises at No. 1231 Poplar Alley, Pittsburgh, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United states; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

7th COUNTY.

And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY,

late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the 9th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table or tables of either or both of them, without compensation), which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused it to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United

GOPY
FROM NATIONAL ARCHIVES
MID ATLANTIC REGION

MAY 06 2011

Record Group No. _____

Additional Information _____

States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin, tub or package; but the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky did then and there unlawfully defraud the said United States of said tax of ten cents per pound on certain artificially colored oleomargarine, to wit, Thirty pounds, contained in a certain wooden firkin, tub and package, by knowingly selling and delivering to one Michael Gyzgack, and removing for consumption and use from their manufactories (said manufactories being <sup>located</sup> at No. 12 Chestnut Alley, in the premises at No. 12 Townsend St., at No. 12 Townsend St., and <sup>each place</sup> then being upon the premises at No. 1231 Poplar Alley, Pittsburgh, in said County and District,) said oleomargarine, contained as aforesaid, without attaching and affixing to the said wooden firkin, tub or package containing said oleomargarine the proper stamp denoting the payment to the United States of said internal revenue stamp tax of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine, and without paying said tax to the United States; contrary to the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

812
COUNT.

CS
And the GRAND INQUEST aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that

JACOB WESOKY and LOUIS WESOKY, late of said District, heretofore, to wit, on the tenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the County of Allegheny, in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, being then and there persons engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine, to wit, persons engaged in selling, vending and furnishing oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others (not for the family table of either or both of them,<sup>A</sup> without compensation) which said oleomargarine had added to and mixed with it by them, said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, certain artificial coloration and coloring matter that caused the same to look like butter of a shade of yellow, unlawfully did attempt to defraud the said United States of the tax on certain oleomargarine, to wit, twelve hundred pounds, produced by them; that is to say, the said Jacob Wesoky and Louis Wesoky, as such manufacturers of artificially colored oleomargarine, were required by law to attach and affix to each wooden or paper firkin, tub or package containing such oleomargarine manufactured by them, and sold by them or removed from their manufactory for consumption and use, a certain internal revenue stamp denoting the payment to the said United States of ten cents on each pound of said artificially colored oleomargarine contained in said firkin,