Arthur J. K. McLaughrey
Dear Sir:

I have a request to make of you that I hope you will surely grant.

My husband Jacob Newby now at your penitentiary is a very weak man physically and is not accustomed to hard labor, although of a weak condition he will not hesitate to do anything that is required of him no matter how it may hurt him.

Having heard that he works on the yards and is being very hard I beg you please again in the name of his four little children not to let their father suffer but let him be able to come out and support his family. Hoping you may grant this for the sake of his little ones and myself, I remain

Yours sincerely
Mrs. Annie Newby.

August 25, 1910.

Warden McLaughry,

Sir:-

In response to your order for a report of the physical condition of Jacob Wesoky, No. 7122, I have the honor to inform you that he is in good health and standing confinement well.

Upon his admission to this prison he was quite anaemic, but he has now completely recovered and you may assure his wife that I have every reason to believe that he will be restored to his family in better health than when he left home.

Very respectfully,

Physician, U.S.P.

Mrs. Annie Wesoky,

No. 4, LaPlace Street,

Pittsburg, Penn.

Madam:

Yours of the 24th reached me in due time, inquiring as to your husband, Jacob Wesoky, Register No. 7182. I have had the doctor examine him carefully, and I inclose to you herewith his certificate, which shows your husband to be getting along well, and he is indeed in better health than when received here. Trusting that this will encourage you, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

Warden.

Mr. J. W. McLaughrey,
Dear Madam:

I am the sinful
wife of Jacob Mesoky now serving time
at you penitentiary.

I implore you for the sake of our four little children the oldest of which is only twelve years to have mercy on their unfortunate father, unfortunate indeed, being tortured for which he is not guilty of.

In behalf of our children I again implore your Honor to give him light work for he is very weak, bodily.

My only hopes are now to bring up my children to the best advantage until the unfortunate father takes part.
We are now existing in hopes and it seems every time we receive a

a letter, our burdens are indeed lightened, but it seems that even this small privilege is also deprived.
Now I humbly beg you for a letter from my poor unfortunate husband
every week.

My husband is a well known in the city for his good character and honesty in dealing with people and if any references be required I can give you signatures of the highest and best men in the city.

Trusting that you may listen my request, and thanking you in advance for the great favor I feel sure your big heart will confer upon me I will remain your ever indebted

Mrs. Annie Mesoby.

July 11, 1910.

Mrs. Annie Wesoky,
No. 4, LaPlace Street,
Pittsburg, Penn.

Madam:

I have your letter of July 6th concerning your husband, Jacob Wesoky, known here as No. 7122, and I write to assure you that his health and comfort will be carefully looked after. He is working in the tailor shop, and the amount of work required of him is not unreasonable or injurious. I have given him permission to write to you every week so long as his record is good. I think he will get through alright; should anything happen to him you will be promptly informed.

Respectfully,

Warden.
